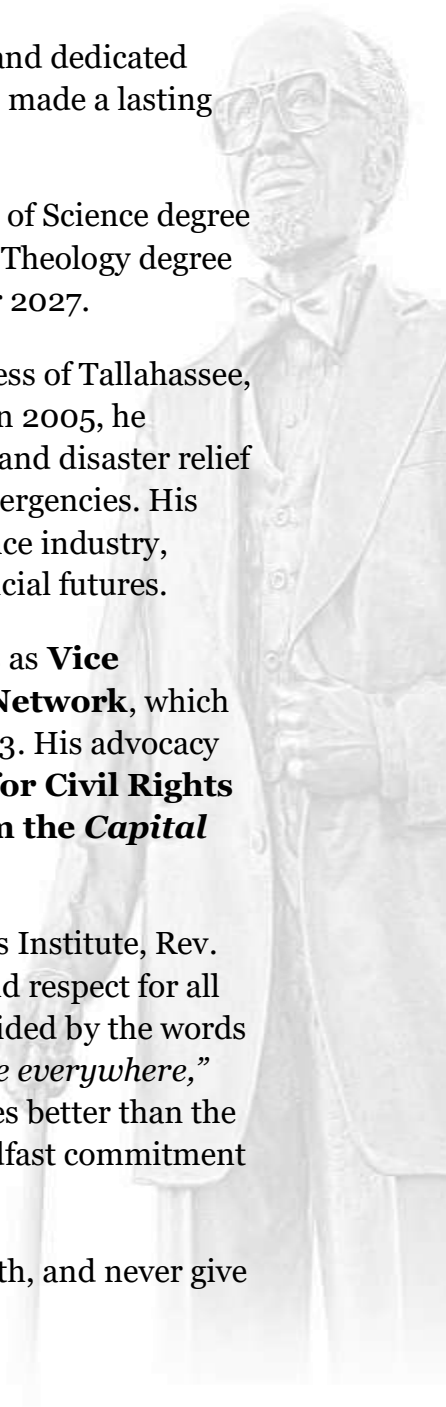
Rev. Don Tolliver



Rev. Don Tolliver is a minister, entrepreneur, insurance professional, and dedicated community advocate whose commitment to service and civil rights has made a lasting impact throughout the Tallahassee community.

A graduate of Florida A&M University, Rev. Tolliver earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Public Administration in 1981 and is currently pursuing a Master of Theology degree at Smith Chapel University, with an anticipated graduation in Summer 2027.

Rev. Tolliver serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Quartress of Tallahassee, Inc., a screen-printing and embroidery company he founded in 1996. In 2005, he established Scion Management Solutions, an emergency management and disaster relief firm focused on helping communities prepare for and recover from emergencies. His professional experience also includes a successful career in the insurance industry, where he has assisted individuals and families in protecting their financial futures.

A respected voice for justice and civic engagement, Rev. Tolliver serves as Vice President of the Tallahassee Chapter of the National Action Network, which was recognized as National Action Network Chapter of the Year in 2023. His advocacy efforts have earned numerous honors, including the Joseph Award for Civil Rights Activism and the Civil Rights Advocate of the Year Award from the *Capital Outlook in 2016.

As a member of the Board of Directors of the C.K. Steele Human Rights Institute, Rev. Tolliver is dedicated to advancing the principles of equality, dignity, and respect for all people, regardless of race, religion, background, or social standing. Guided by the words of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere," and inspired by his father's belief that one must strive to be "three times better than the next person," he continues to lead with faith, perseverance, and a steadfast commitment to human rights.

His personal philosophy is simple: Keep pressing forward, keep the faith, and never give up.
